Hey Eric,
Here's what's left of that original page: <http://archive.epa.gov/bpspill/web/html/techsolution.html>

We just stood up the agency king gold page yesterday. Let's touch base this morning.

I see you are the new director for web services. Please take a look at my note to Jeffrey.

Can we talk in the morning so I can bring you up to speed?

Thanks.

Eric

Hey Jeffrey

It's been a while since we worked together on the website for the public to submit ideas to the agency to clean up the oil in the gulf. Well things have ramped up for the Gold

King Mine release and there is an interest in setting up a website to solicit ideas again.

Are you still the right person to help me get a simple site up and running?

My DAA would like to get it online as soon as possible. I will be in my office at 9 am EST. Can we talk when I get in?

Thanks.
